Who is this fund for?

Investors who:

- Are looking for a core holding for the Canadian short-term fixed income component of a portfolio.
- Are seeking a fund that invests primarily in fixed income securities with short-term durations.
- Have an investment time horizon of over one year as a stand alone fund.

Before you invest in any fund, you should consider how it will work with your other investments and your tolerance for risk.

A word about tax

Generally, you will have to pay income tax on any money you make on a fund. How much tax you will pay depends on the tax laws where you reside, and whether or not the fund is held in a registered plan such as a Registered Retirement Savings Plan or a Tax Free Savings Account. Please keep in mind that if you hold the fund in a non-registered account, fund distributions are included in your taxable income whether they are taken as cash or re-invested.

How much does it cost?

What if I change my mind?

Under securities law in some provinces and territories, you have the right to:

- withdraw from an agreement to buy mutual fund units within two business days after you receive a simplified prospectus, or
- cancel your purchase within 48 hours after you receive confirmation of the purchase.

In some provinces and territories, you also have the right to cancel a purchase, or in some jurisdictions, claim damages, if the simplified prospectus, annual information form or financial statements contain a misrepresentation. You must act within the time limit set by the securities law in your province or territory.

For more information, see the securities law of your province or territory, or ask a lawyer.
